Intro paragraph without chapter heading. This is a lecture note.

Chapter guide line text for testing extraction flow.
Knowledge point one: the city is a permanent settlement with political structure.
Knowledge point two: urban governance involves multiple stakeholders.
Key concept: administrative division determines municipal authority boundaries.

More content here so the section has enough characters for chunking tests.
Another sentence about public administration and city management principles.
Final line of the sample lecture notes content for parsing.